ABOUT THE PLAY

Covid was hard. Showing up for class was harder. Three high school students have nothing in common except failing grades. What's a high school theater teacher to do? Force them to write a play together of course!

BIOGRAPHIES

Katie Calahan (Ms. Othmar) was last seen in LAB Theater Project's The Wendy House as Tommy and can currently be seen in Cripplerella in Quarantine as part of the Jobsite Digital Shorts. Some of her favorite roles include Marie Antionette in The Revolutionists, Berdine in Psycho Beach Party, Babe in Crimes of the Heart, Estelle in No Exit and Cripplerella in Cripplerella or the Cracked Glass Slipper. Her film and television credits include In the Meantime (YouTube), Underwriting Love & Quarterlife (NBC). Katie received her classical training and BFA from Boston University.

Georgia Mallory Guy (Production Design) is the Producing Artistic Director of ThinkTank Theatre and is delighted to be producing for a 3rd year at the Tampa International Fringe Festival with this year's production of Can(t) Relate. "Being part of TIFF is special for us at ThinkTank as it gives our Young Artists' Ensemble, the Tampa Famous YAE, the opportunity to devise and produce a piece from start to show!" Georgia is also a professional actor and director as well as an adjunct professor for Centenary University. She has also been fortunate to also serve as an adjunct at the University of South Florida, and Ohio University. Georgia is a graduate of Troy University (BME and BA - Theatre/Communications) and Ohio University's Professional Actor Training Program (MFA Performance). She is a proud member of Actors' Equity. Thanks to Traveis, my love.

Molly Leigh Healy (Director) has been a teaching artist in the Tampa bay area since 2012. She has taught musical theater, improv, acting, and her favorite, playwriting to all levels of students. Molly is also an actress who has worked locally for American Stage, Stageworks, HatTrick, Think Tank, Ghost Light and Saint Pete Shakespeare Festival as well as appearing in Tampa Fringe. Her favorite thing to do is create new works with students bringing their ideas to life

BIOGRAPHIES

Layla Kuck (Maggie) is a junior at Alonso Highschool and is a member of Troop 6299 and a student at the Patel Conservatory. Some of her most recent productions have been Mamma Mia, Side-by-side by sometime, The little mermaid and Disaster the musical. She is currently working on her musical theater certification at Patel Conservatory, a member of ThinkTank TYA and a member of NHS. Layla is incredibly excited to be part of her first Tampa International Fringe Festival with ThinkTank's show Can('t) Relate!

Jake Perez (Ryan) is a Senior honors student at Newsome high school, where he is an active part, and leadership member of his theatre troupe. He has been a member of the YAE for 2 years and been part of numerous ThinkTank productions including: Snoopy, Around the World in 80 days, Holiday Festivus, How to LOVE, and Friday/Saturday a Cabaret. When not on stage he enjoys watching movies, and hanging out with his friends and family. He appreciates the opportunity to work with all the amazing cast and crew he has met during his time with ThinkTank!

Ky Richards (Production Design) is an amateur video editor and graphic designer. She builds her knowledge on creative programs and tech through personal projects as well as local volunteering with cameras, lighting, and sound. Ky loves any opportunity she can get to use her skills for creativity. Her work can be displayed throughout ThinkTank's "Can('t) Relate."

BIOGRAPHIES

Annie Sardouk (Aaron) is thrilled to be a part of her first Tampa International Fringe Festival with ThinkTank's Can(t) Relate! She is in her second year as a member of the YAE, and was most recently involved in ThinkTanks May production of Snoopy!!! The Musical! as Peppermint Patty. Annie has acted in numerous school and community theatre productions. Memorable roles include Eponine (Les Mis), Katherine (Newsies), Annie (Annie), Grizabella (Cats), Belle (Beauty & the Beast), and Trix (The Drowsy Chaperone). Annie is a junior at Berkeley Prep and loves being a part of the school's theatre program and competitive a cappella singing group. Annie is a member of an award-winning robotics team, and volunteers in her community to spread her love of science to underserved students.

Ryan Sturm (Stage Manager) OH, does it feel good to see you all again! Ryan is <insert exuberant verb> to be back with this wonderful company! This is Ryan's third go-around as the stage manager for a TTYA production and he's grateful for the copious amounts of patience of all involved. ...no, seriously. Ryan is a TTYA O.G. – appearing in several of their past productions, and proudly serving as the YAE Coordinator on the Company's Board of Directors. Ryan has also played in the sandbox with the wonderful folks at Stageworks Theatre (Avenue Q) and Jobsite Theater (Silence! The Musical, The Threepenny Opera). Much peace and love, everyone – enjoy the show! www.ryansturmvo.com
